

PRESIDIO®

HUMAN RESOURCES POLICY

Last Reviewed Date: February 19, 2025

Introduction

Purpose of the Policy:

The purpose of this policy is to establish clear and consistent guidelines that define the rights, responsibilities, and expected standards of conduct for employees at Presidio Solutions. It aims to ensure compliance with applicable labor laws and regulatory requirements, promote fairness and transparency in the workplace, and support the organization's mission and objectives. By fostering a professional, inclusive, and collaborative environment, the policy seeks to protect the company's interests, including its resources, reputation, and intellectual property, while empowering employees to thrive and contribute to shared success.

Policy Applicability:

This policy applies to all full-time employees of Presidio India, including those working in any department, function, or location within the organization. It encompasses all employees who have been hired on a full-time basis under the terms and conditions outlined in their employment agreements with Presidio India.

Contractors, interns, consultants, and part-time employees are not covered under this policy unless explicitly stated. Separate policies and guidelines may apply to these categories of workers, as specified by their respective agreements or organizational guidelines.

Presidio Core Values

Excellence:

We are passionate, nimble, and relentless in delivering the best solutions possible for our customers. We take pride in solving challenging problems and we strive for excellence in everything we do for our customers and employees. We set high expectations, proactively look for ways to improve, and collaborate seamlessly with our colleagues and partners. We always do the right thing.

One Presidio:

We are one global connected team, unified by our shared mission. We are aware of our global cultural differences and we value the diverse talents and unique perspectives of all employees, customers, and partners. We break down silos, and we collaborate openly and respectfully. We know we are stronger together.

Forward-Thinking:

We are creative innovators and we stay ahead of the curve. We're always anticipating what's next for our customers, partners, and employees. We continuously evolve our skills, technology, and business practices to deliver the most transformative, long-lasting solutions. We are leaders and pioneers.

Accountability:

We hold ourselves accountable for our actions, inactions, behavior, decisions, integrity, and results. We give and receive feedback openly and swiftly. We take ownership for our mistakes and seek to learn when we fail. We hold each other, at all levels, to the highest standards. We walk-the-walk and live our values every day.

New Hires Onboarding

New Hires Background Verification:

At Presidio, all new hires undergo a comprehensive Background Verification Process to ensure the integrity and reliability of our workforce. This process involves a series of checks, both prior to and after the date of joining (DOJ), to verify the authenticity of the candidate's credentials and background. The following verifications are conducted as part of this process:

- Criminal Records Check (Completed prior to the Date of Joining)
- Court Records Check (Completed prior to the Date of Joining)
- Global Database Check (Completed prior to the Date of Joining)
- Current Employment Check (Completed prior to the Date of Joining)
- Current Address Check (Completed post Date of Joining)

If there is any discrepancy in the Background Verification Report, it is the decision of the Practice Head and HR to terminate the employee, and the employee must adhere to the terms and conditions.

Social Media Release Agreement:

Upon onboarding at Presidio, employees will be asked to sign a social media release agreement, through which they provide consent to Presidio to post their pictures on social media as needed.

New Hires Probation Period:

All new hires at Presidio India will undergo a probationary period of six months, during which their performance, conduct, and overall suitability for their role will be assessed by their respective department. If necessary, the probationary period may be extended, and the reasons for such an extension will be formally communicated to the employee.

Compensatory Time Off:

Employees are eligible for compensatory time off in case if the employee was required to extend weekday hours or work over weekends based on the department's guidelines and approvals. Please visit the following Intrasite Page for more information.

Dress Code:

Employees are expected to use good judgment and show courtesy to their co-workers by dressing in a manner that is presentable and appropriate. Employees may be asked to attend business meetings with clients or any business gatherings, either at Presidio offices or elsewhere, for which they are expected to dress in appropriate business attire.

Performance Management

Performance Evaluation:

- Every eligible employee will have their annual performance review meeting with their Manager or Mentor.
- The appraisal team includes the employee's Mentor, Manager, and Practice Head.
- Presidio India utilizes a performance management tool called PeopleCues, which allows employees to define, track, and monitor objectives, feedback, and the review process.
- Employees eligible for promotion or appraisal will not have their letters processed if the one-on-one review with the Manager, as well as the self-review and Manager review in PeopleCues, are not completed.
- Employee performance ratings are based on work performance, adherence to the code of conduct prescribed by the company, any special certifications earned, and contributions to the organization.
- Mentors, Managers, and Practice Heads must complete the review process for employees based solely on performance (direct or indirect contributions) and in a fair manner.

Performance Improvement Plan (PIP):

A Performance Improvement Plan (PIP) can be initiated for any employee with the designation of Lead Engineer (or equivalent) and below if their performance does not meet expected standards. The key guidelines are as follows:

- A Performance Improvement Plan (PIP) can be initiated at any point during the employee's tenure.
- The duration of the PIP is determined by the Mentor, Manager, and Practice Head.
- During the PIP period, the employee will be under continuous monitoring.
- Upon completion of the PIP period, a decision will be made regarding the employee's future with the company.
- If the business (Manager / Practice Head) decides to terminate the employee based on their performance during the PIP, the employee must adhere to the separation terms and conditions and align with the HR team for a smooth exit process.

Separation Based on Performance Related Issues:

Any employee with the designation of Associate Delivery Manager (or equivalent) and above can be terminated in case if the employee's holistic performance does not meet the expected standards and competencies defined, the employee must adhere to the separation terms and conditions and align with the HR team for a smooth exit process. The Performance Improvement Plan (PIP) does not apply to this category of the workforce.
